Background

Iqqra is e-learning platform. We worked together to make a user friendly learning experience for the kids. Kids will have fun learning yet a educational experience.

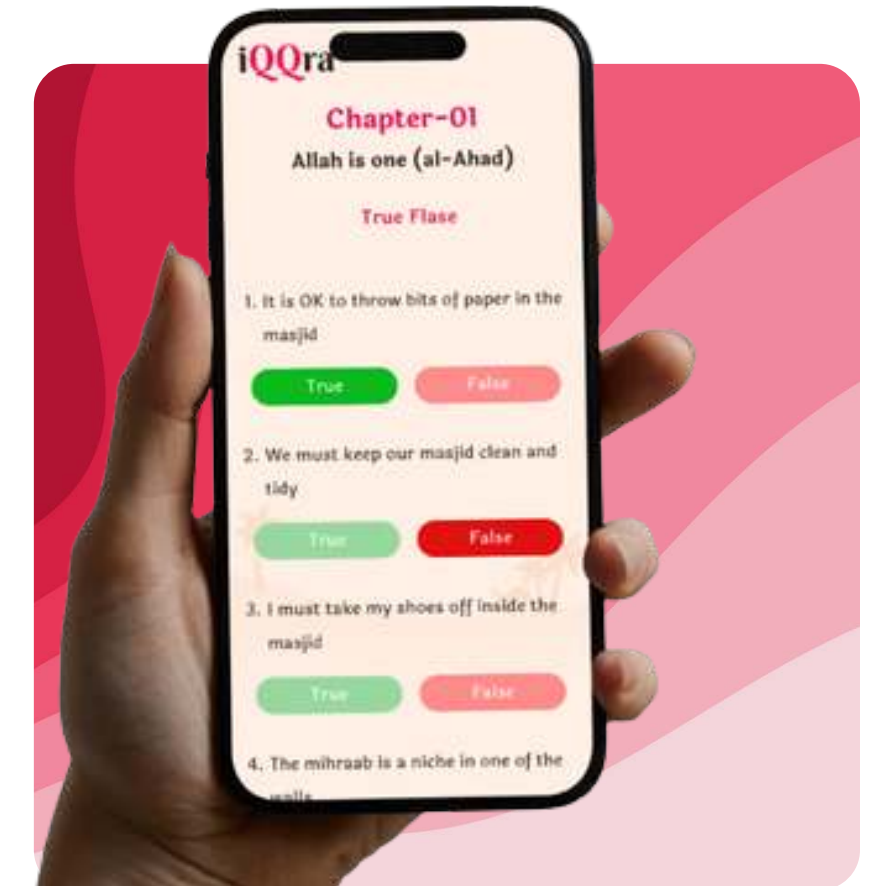

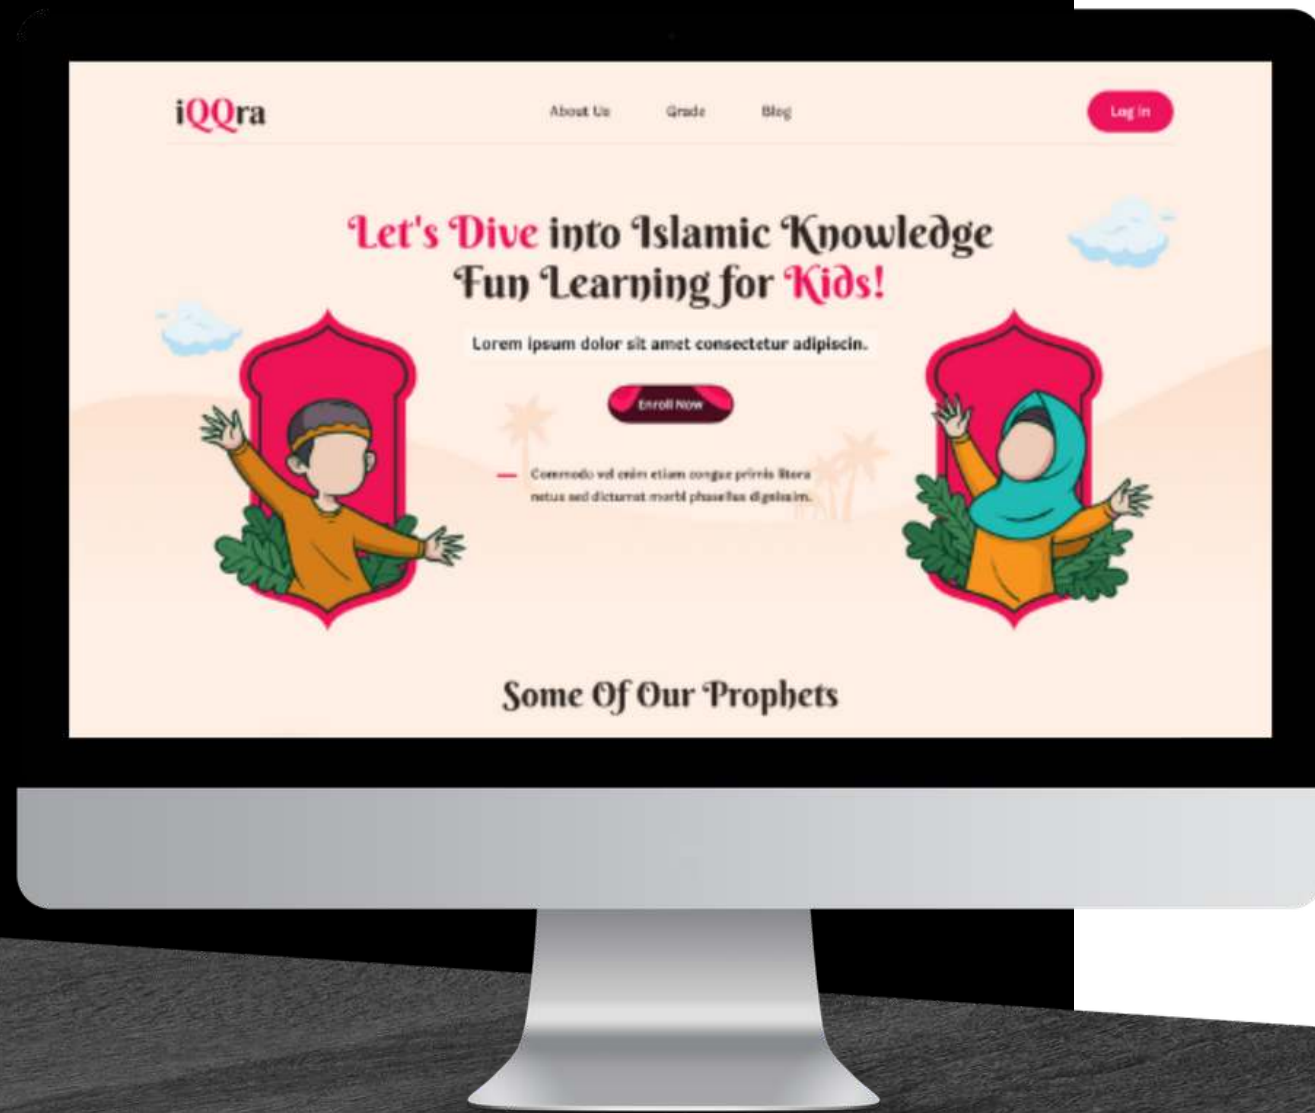

The Problem

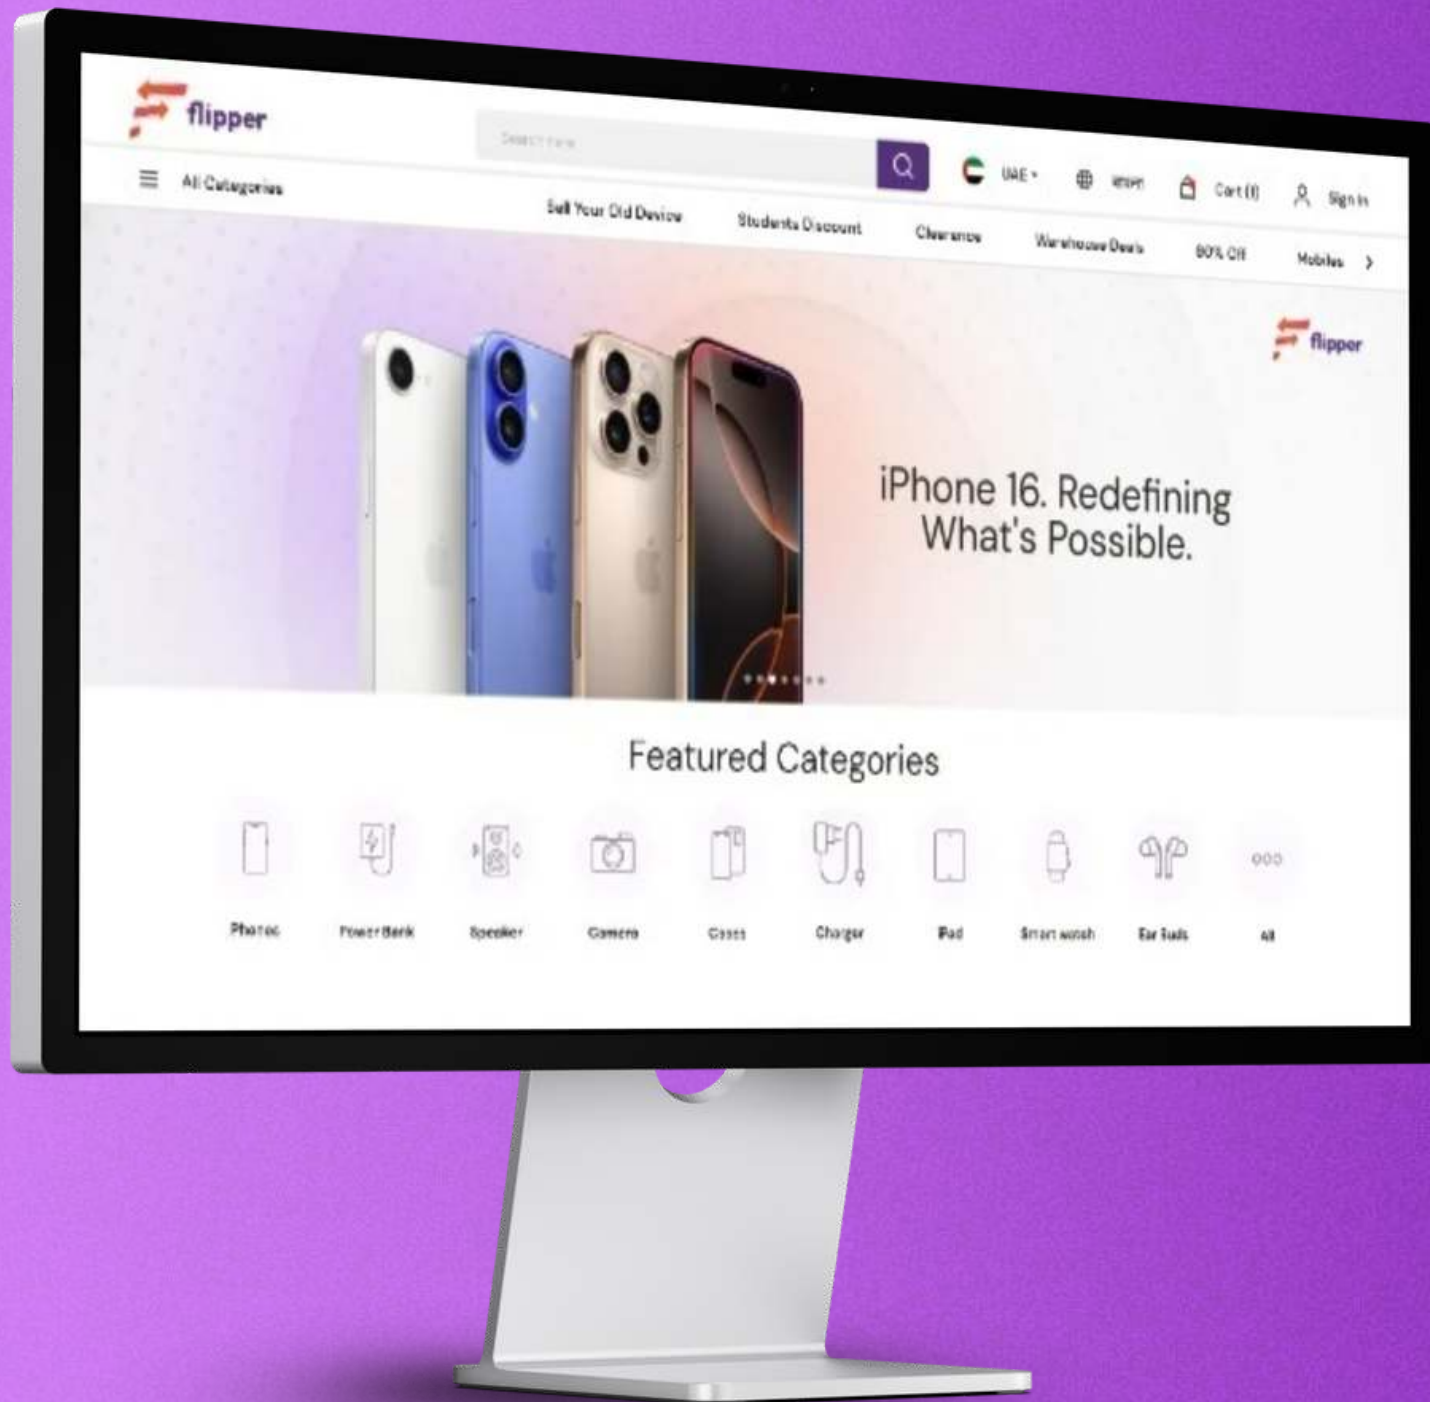

Our biggest challenge was to create the template for questions. from a book curriculum to a user friendly digital site was most complex task. We managed to solve it.

Solution

We created question category so that admin can put any question to a category and easily upload and edit them.

Background

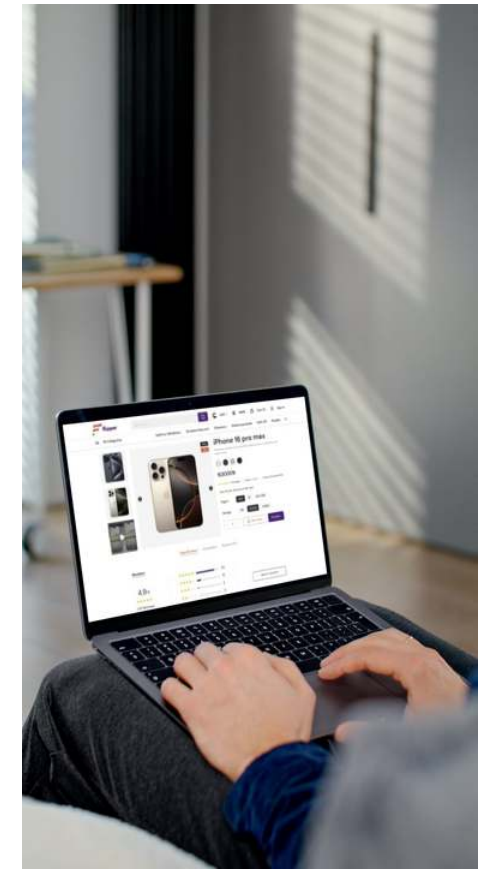

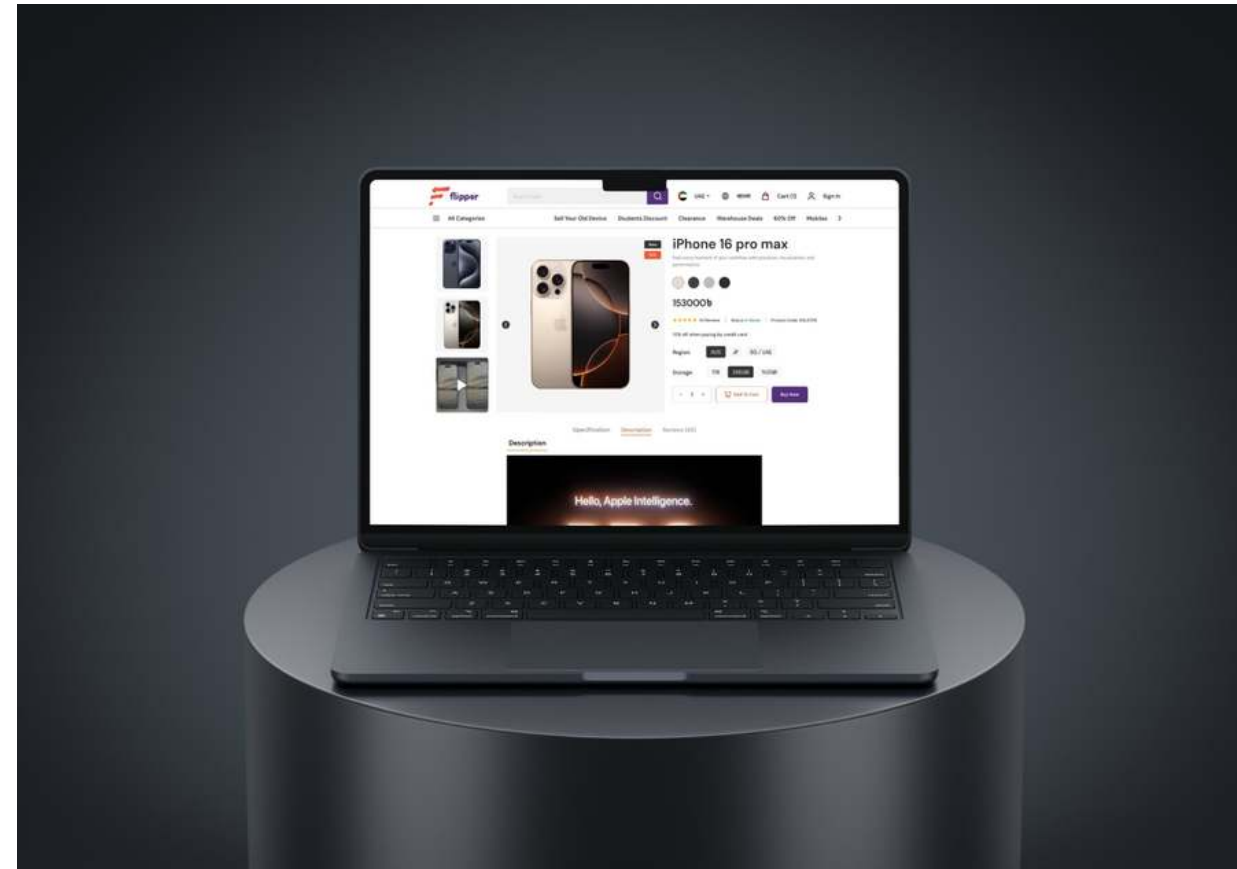

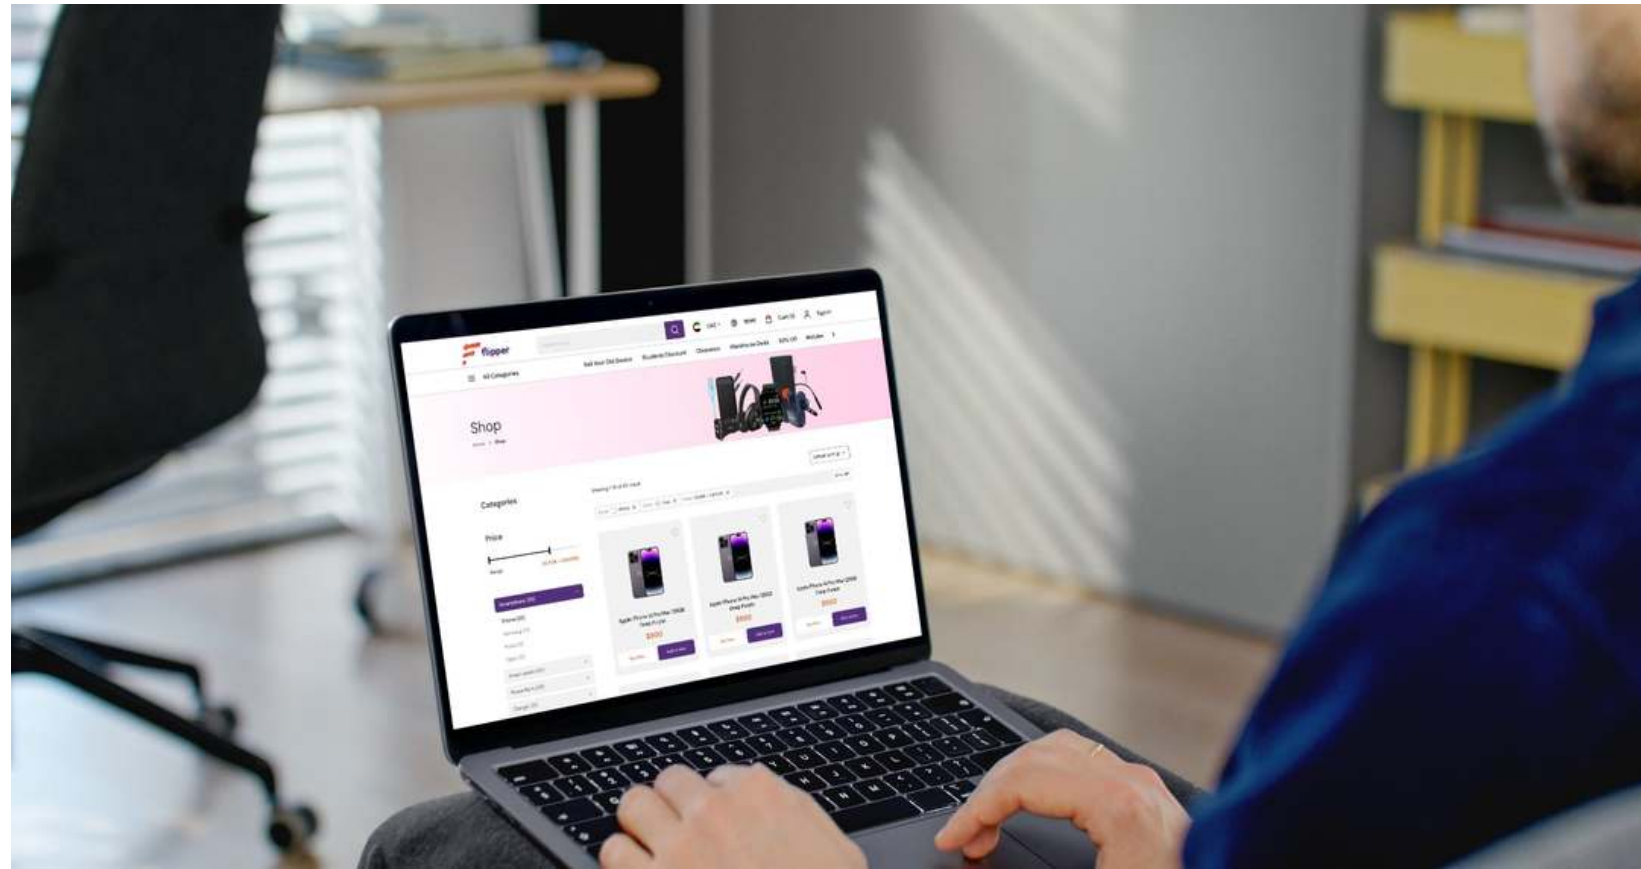

On this application, one can easily purchase, sell, or even exchange their mobile phone/electronic devices for the best price available in the market. Through rigorous quality control, Flipper's team members can ensure the top-quality and dependability of every electrical device sold or exchanged on their marketplace.

The Problem

The complexity of re-commerce was convincing user friendly experience that allows user to complete their device evaluation done easily.

Solution

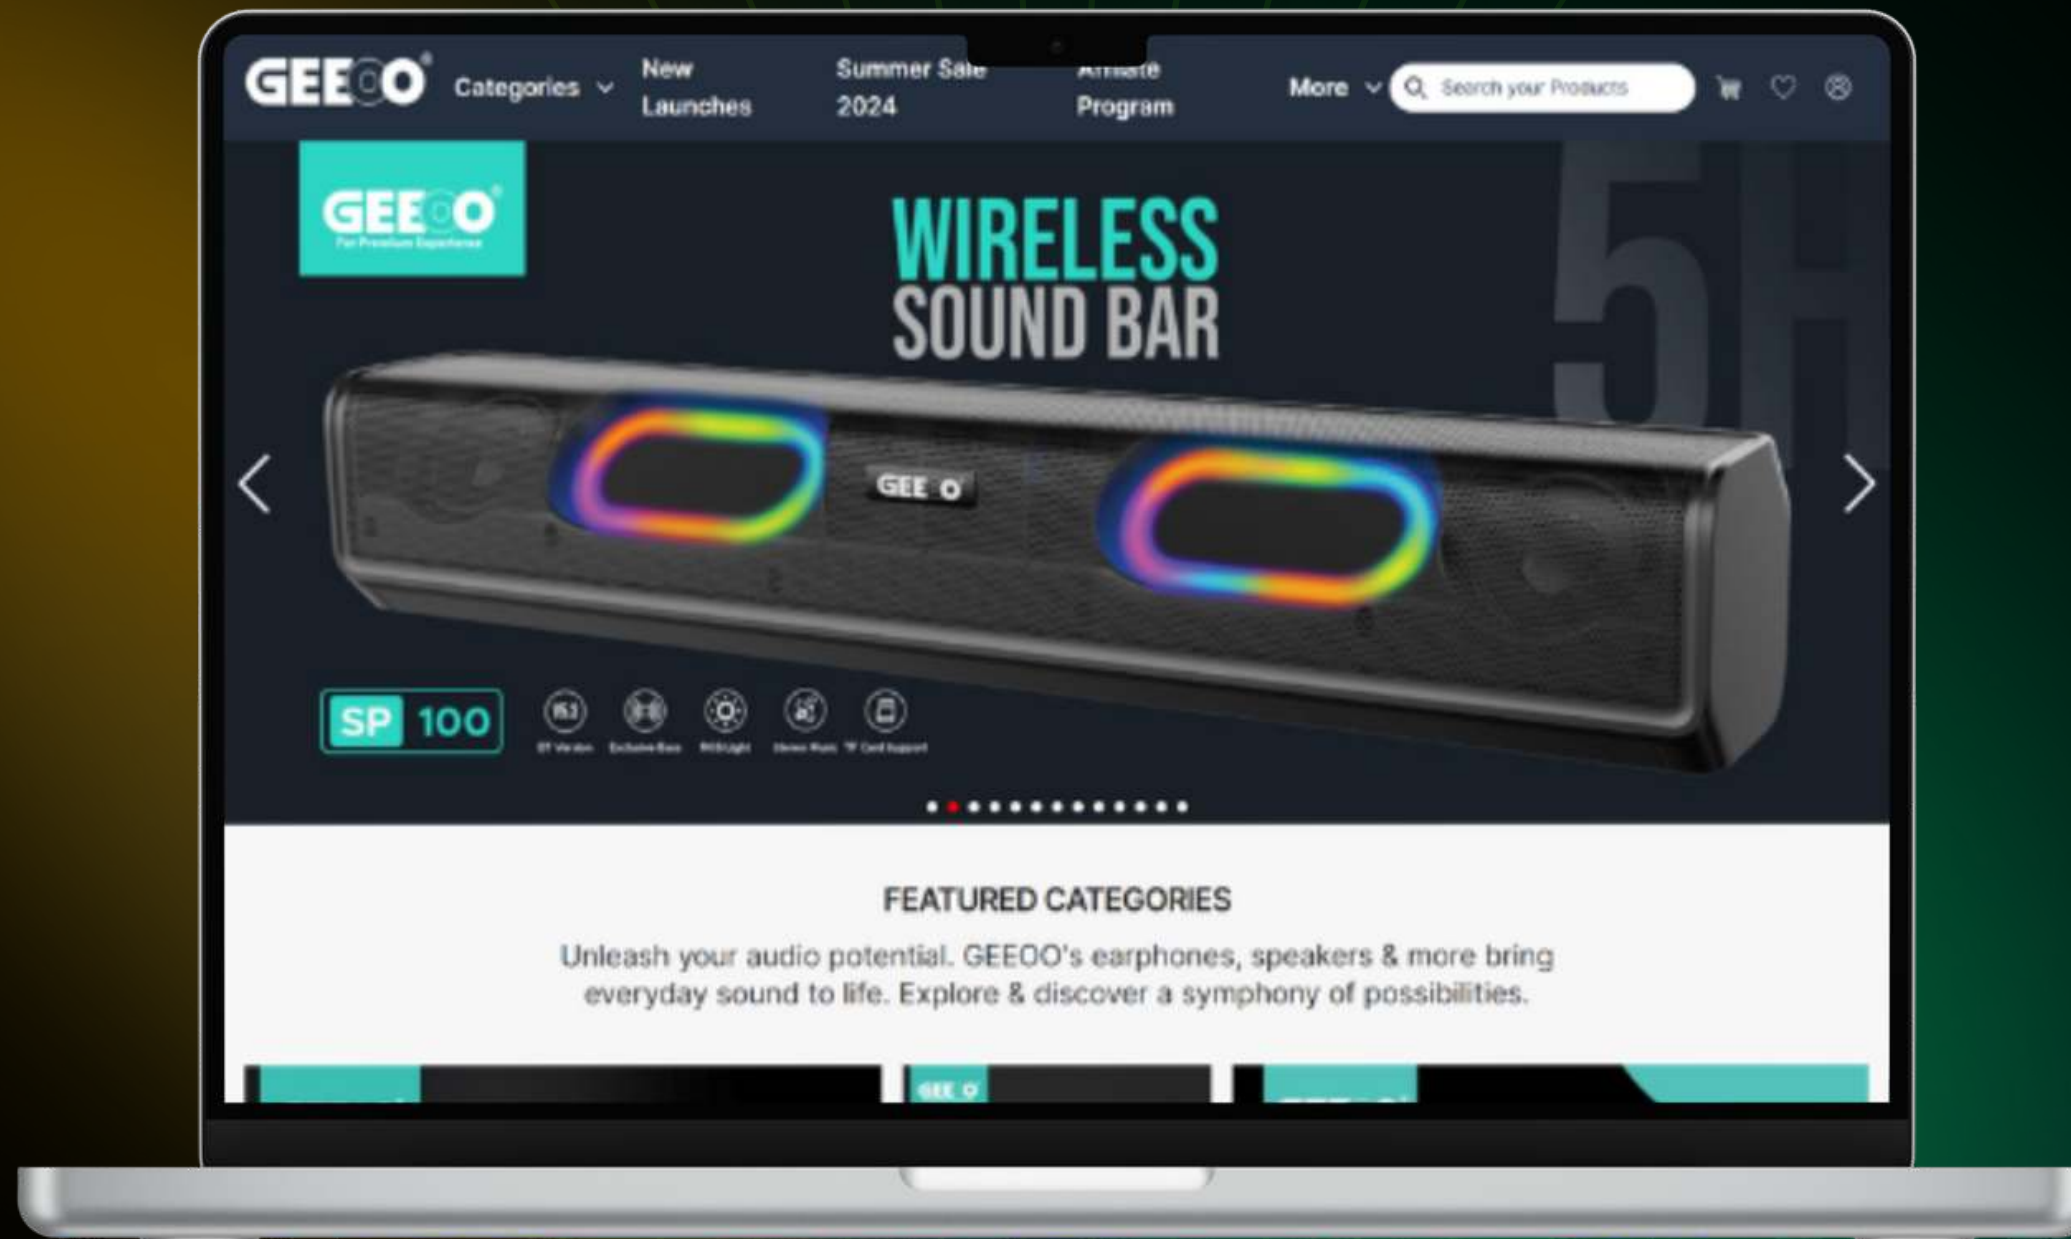

We designed the user experience such way so that a user can easily evaluate their device in just 50 second. Also a bidding system where seller and buyer can bargain.

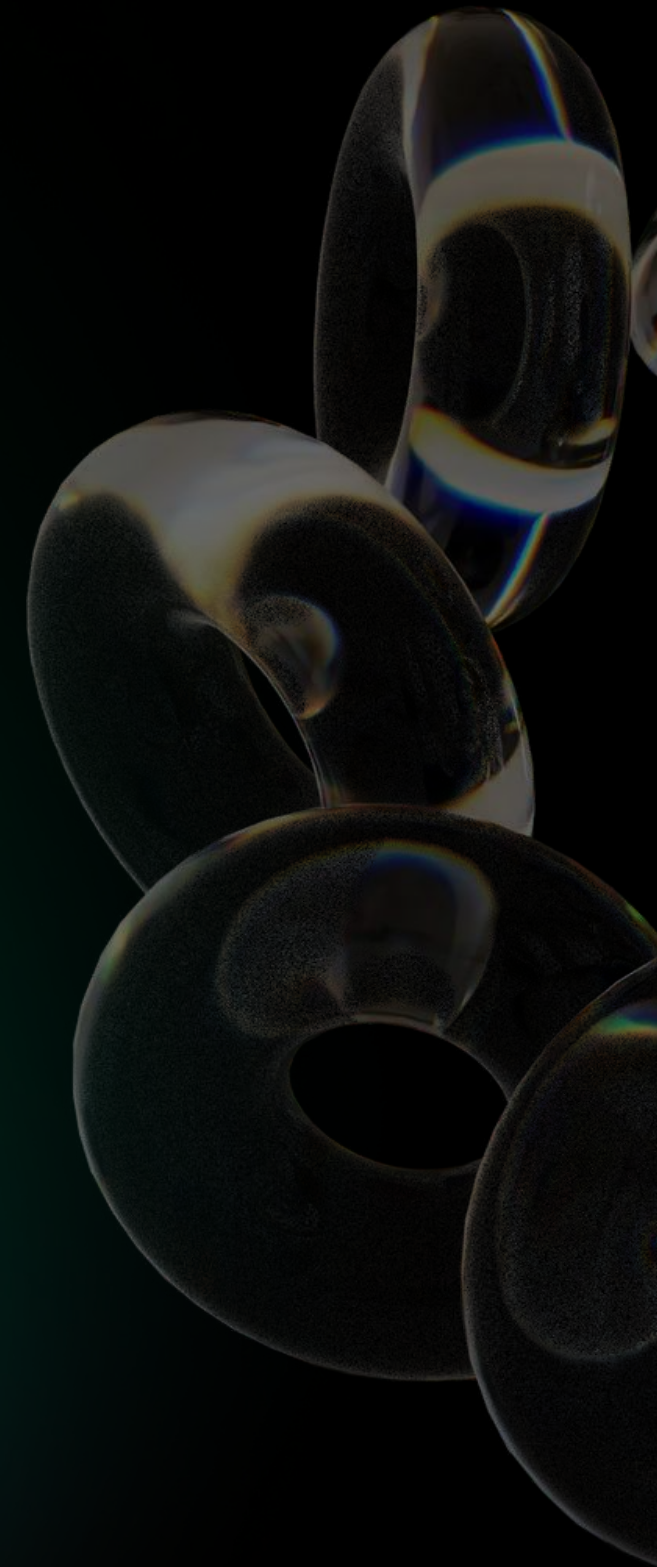

This is a screenshot of the Flipper website's homepage. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the Flipper logo, a search bar, and links for 'UAE', 'Sign In', and 'Cart (0)'. Below the navigation bar are several promotional banners, including one for 'Sell Your Old Device' and another for 'Students Discount'. The main hero section features a large image of four iPhone 16 models with the text 'iPhone 16. Redefining What's Possible.' Below this is a 'Featured Categories' section with icons for various product types: Phone, Power Bank, Speaker, Camera, Cases, Charger, Pad, Smart watch, Ear buds, and All. At the bottom, there are four 'Top Deals' banners for Apple AirPods.

Background

A user can explore programs of M A Malique Foundation, register for training courses, apply for support, donate, volunteer, and stay updated on events, medical camps, and community development initiatives.

The Problem

M A Malique Foundation addresses unemployment, lack of skills, and limited access to healthcare and opportunities among underserved communities. It empowers people with training, support, and resources to build sustainable livelihoods.

Solution

We solve these challenges by providing skill training, healthcare services, and support programs that equip people with practical abilities and access to opportunities.

The website streamlines operations by managing registrations, tracking beneficiaries, coordinating programs, collecting donations, and sharing updates —making everything faster, transparent, and scalable.
